HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL Mr. Neil Schweda

To the Class of 2005:

It is often said that the best test of education's quality is made long after the students have left the classrooms. Soon you will be leaving the halls of Chester Academy to bear witness to the quality of your education.

The earnest wish of this administration and faculty is that the democratic principals that formed the basis of your high school education will help you meet the challenges ahead as a good citizen and loyal American.

Sincerely,
Neil Schweda

CHESTER VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 2005 football season was a success in all ways possible. The Varsity squad battled through much adversity, including the loss of All-State performer, Ronayne Hamilton, but pulled together to post another impressive campaign. Finishing with a 9-2 record, the Hambletonians went on to capture the Section Nine, Class "D" Championship for the second year in a row. In addition to the Varsity program, Chester fielded a Junior Varsity team as well. With the addition of the Junior Varsity, along with dedicated players and coaches, the future looks bright for years to come. The players and coaches wish to thank all of our supporters with hopes that we provided them some thrills during the past season.

SIGN LANGUAGE

Mrs. Thonus and Mrs. Conway established the Sign Language Club this year. They teach the members about sign language and the culture of the deaf. They have learned about two different types of language, American Sign Language and Sign English. Sign English was created by hearing people for the deaf. American Sign Language was created by the deaf. They are very different. The members of the club have been able to practice with a deaf person and are learning very quickly. They had a bake sale and a chocolate candy fundraiser this year because they are going to see a play at the Lyceum Theater. The play, Robin Hood, will be both spoken and signed. What a great addition to Chester Academy's clubs!

YEARBOOK CLUB

The Yearbook Club is advised by Mrs. Ryan. The yearbook staff spends from September until April piecing together all of Chester Academy's memories, and the events of the year. The members attend all of the school functions in order to be able to document sports events, club fundraisers, and community service projects. This year the editor was Michael Rodriguez. This year also brought a new change with the introduction of the full color yearbook.

DANCE CLUB

These girls love to dance. Mr. Scweda told Mrs. Brown that these girls were always dancing in the halls and encouraged her to form a Dance Club. She gladly did, and it became a great new opportunity for them to meet new friends who share the same interest. They have varied dancing backgrounds, ranging from ballet, tap, and jazz to hip hop. They use techniques from all these dance forms, and they do a fabulous job choreographing their own dances to music they select. Their performances were exciting and appreciated by everyone at the Pep Rally and Basketball games. They are going to perform at the Talent Show this year and will certainly draw a big crowd.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club is an exciting group that gets together to compete with other schools, practice Math skills, and most of all have fun. Five times a year, the Math club travels around Orange County and competes with other Middle Schools. They are given timed problems and at the end of each problem, judges determine how many questions were right for each team. The last problem is a relay. At the end of the competition, the first and second place teams compete to find the winner. There are refreshments served. This is the first year of this program at Chester and our advisor Mrs. Hewitt is doing a great job!

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club has been having lots of fun! They built and exploded a volcano. They made slides from their own skin and fingernails, as well as pineapple and carrots. Then they examined them under microscopes. Definitely scientific. They plan to adopt an animal from the National Zoo in Washington. And for a grand finale, they would like to go to Imax or Liberty Science Fair.

ENTREPRENEURS

This year is the first year Chester has an Entrepreneurs club. Mrs. McPherson as the advisor overlooks and teaches the students the skills of how to run a business. Last year the business class built a cart for their store which opened this year. The cart allows the store to move around the school and sell Chester Academy merchandise, school supplies, and snacks, before school and during lunch periods.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Mrs. Markovits is the advisor for this year's National Honor Society. This is her second year as advisor. To become a member, students must demonstrate the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. This year the members organized a tutoring program that benefitted any students who needed some help with schoolwork during their free time. This club, along with the rest of the senior class, continued the school tradition of helping raise money for the People to People fund through Senior Servant Day. They also worked every weekend at a soup kitchen in Middletown and in conjunction with the Amnesty International and Key Club, organized a Tsunami Pasta Relief Dinner.

ENVIRONMENTAL/ AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Ms. Lange is the advisor for the environmental and Amnesty International Clubs. The Environmental and Amnesty clubs are similar in many aspects. They are held on the same day of the week, in the same room, with the same advisor and members, at the same time. These clubs are geared toward protecting those who cannot protect themselves. During meetings they write letters to the governments who are oppressing their people by denying their unalienable rights, and to governments and businesses which make money at the expense of our innocent environment.

KEY CLUB

Mr. Bandura is the Key Club advisor this year, and he has been the advisor for many years in the past. The Key Club is involved in many school and community service projects. As always, this year's Key Club members organized a very successful holiday food drive, to help needy families in our area to have an enjoyable holiday. Each year, club members also participate in two charity walks- a breast cancer walk, and the walk for Alzheimer's.

DRAMA

Mrs. Scali is the exciting new advisor for the Drama Club. This year they are presenting Gilbert and Sullivan's Pirates of Penzance. She is very appreciative of the generous funding by the Board of Education and believes it will make this year's production memorable.

OM

Odyssey of the Mind is an organization that is based on creativity and quickness of the mind. Each team has seven members who work together to solve a specific problem. They participate in a competition in February in which there are two parts; the long term competition and the spontaneous competition. The long term competition is a seven minute skit that portrays the problem's solution, and the spontaneous competition is a quick question round.

CITIZENS PARTY

Mr. Bandura is this year's Citizen's Party advisor for Youth-in-Government. Youth-in-Government gives students the opportunity to participate in an organized government simulation. Students come up with a platform idea, which they then research and present at a Youth-in-Government convention, along with students from many other schools. Participants in the convention vote on whether a platform should be passed or not. People also have the opportunity to run for a position in a mock government situation.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is comprised of students representing each grade, as well as other groups and clubs. Members work together to schedule fundraisers, dances, and other school activities. They also get fundraisers approved and plan school events. The students are able to work well with the faculty to make school events successful.

GUITAR CLUB

The Guitar Club meets Wednesdays after school. Student in Grades 6 through 12 interested in playing guitar are always welcome to attend. This year, twenty-four students from beginners to more advanced players attend at various times depending on their schedules. Some play electric guitar while others prefer acoustic. Heavy metal to folk songs can be heard in the various areas of the band room. The meetings are informal with students playing together in small groups or sometimes just working on individual practice.

Mrs. Scali, the advisor of the Middle School Chorus, is thrilled with the expansion of the chorus. Many students will be auditioning for Junior High School All County Chorus, as well as Elementary All County Chorus. This spring, they will be going to NYSSMA Solos and, hopefully, Majors. Mrs. Scali's goal is to be represented at all Area, County and State Festivals.

JAZZ BAND

Mr. Venable is the band director for all three bands that we have at Chester. The three bands that he conducts are Jazz Band, Middle School band, and High School Band. The Middle and High School Bands play a wide variety of music such as the themes from Broadway plays, well-known movies and television shows, and even some classical music. Participation in Band gives students the opportunity to promote the cultural enjoyment of music to the rest of the school and the entire community of Chester.

In Mr. Troups's 6th grade classes, the students were asked to question the circumstances surrounding King Tut's premature death in Egypt. Was it murder or due to illness? The students worked in teams to research information about the boy king's early death. Each team member visited a web site on the internet to get as much information as possible to determine if King Tut was murdered.

In Ms. Traina's English classes, the students had to use the information they received from their research, and write a persuasive essay to support or reject the murder theory. They could do this either in the form of a "letter to the editor" or do a power point presentation.

In Mrs. Gass's Math classes, students spent a week learning the Egyptian number system. They used the Egyptian symbols in Math computation and in problem solving.

In Mrs. Mundie's Science classes, the students are doing a research paper and a presentation on diseases and medical practices in ancient Egypt.

Teaching sixth grade is a lot of fun. It is especially exciting now that we are a part of the Academy. It has been a year of "learning the ropes" for both teachers and students. In science we spend the year getting an overview of all of the sciences. (life, physical, earth) so we get to play with airplanes, watch frogs and plants grow, and make volcanoes.

Some of the fundraisers the Class of 2009 has been involved with are recycling of old cell phones, ink and laser jet printer cartridges, and AVON. We began these fundraisers in the 2003-04 school year and hope to continue through 2009. This year we have bake sales planned and we are selling seat cushions for athletic events that say Chester Academy.

Students of the class of 2008 showed their school spirit and class pride immediately this year when 15 students competed in a tight election for class officer positions. President Nadia Gushin and Vice President Rebecca Sypher organized fundraisers and community service projects. Michael Rosenberg, treasurer, and secretary Victoria Lew made sure fundraisers such as dances, bake sales, a candy sale, and homecoming snacks ran smoothly. The class officers rely on student council members Lauren Phillips and Tom Guerreri to be the voice for their class in student council.

The sophomores are the class of 2007! This year they did fundraising for their prom next year. They hope to do many fundraisers including some new ones such as lollypop sale, a cookie dough sale, a Burger King sale, and a rock candy sale. They also hope to do many of their favorite fundraisers like pizza sale, bake sales, an Entertainment book sale, and Spring Grams. The tenth graders also held a middle school dance. Their lovely and wonderful advisor is Miss Villosio!

KAYLEE MOODY

When did I loose track of time? I look back at the years and count all of the smiles and try to remember the lessons I learned from ever tear that escaped my eyes. Every kiss and every hug pulled me through to the next day. I never thought I'd have to go through life without the strongest part of me. Though no one could ever take his place in my heart, I had to pick my head up towards the sunshine to avoid the shadows. I look up at the sky where the ones who love me reside and wonder how they see me now. As I look at the changes, friend, family...I wonder what's ahead of me.Likes/Loves:Mommy,Daddy(in loving memory),Mikey-Davester,Chris,Dakota,Taylor Rose,Grammy,Poppy,Nana and Pop(in loving memory),Zachary Craig(my love),Mom and Dad Schmidlein,Sam,Mark Huertas,Mark Baird,my boys from propface(I love you guys so much),Sam-Mc NY, Good Masic, the arts, movies, DRUMMERS, Jets, Yankees, the way he makes me feel. JUSTIN NASH

I always wondered how much money the guy who invented toilet paper made. Every body needs it and most people use it. Along with tooth paste and a whole lot of other things. Bill Gates had the right idea. Donald trump too. Barry White got it also. In this world and especially in America, life is based on three things: Love, Money and Power. Not many people know where I come from or how I came to be the person I am today. I have lived through swamps, barns, cities, studios. I have been in many hospitals. I have suffered much hardship. But in my life I have been shown what others have not seen. I cannot sum up my life experiences in one short write up. However, it is through the mistakes and hardships of others surrounding me as well as my self, who made me strive harder for my success. So watch out Gates, Trump and Mr. President because here I come with the Heated toilet seat.

Goooooooooooo Morning Chester Academy!!! I've had many memories in the past that I cannot possibly fit all here. From getting hit by the baseball everytime at bat in little league to getting hit in the head and rolling down the hill from a 2 foot in diameter sewage pipe. Falling in the pews in church, running into the basement door... those are just a few to name. I've had my "bright" ideas in the past like you cant run a yard sale with McDonalds toys when your only 7 years old, trying to wash a donut after you drop it in the grass, or making "For Sale" signs to wave at cars to sell your house. I still will never forget the things other people do...such as my sister Mylene asking "Which building is the one with apartments?" when driving through NYC! to her explaining to my younger sister that "Unattended" means "9,8,7,6,5,4,3,2,1"... confusing it with "under ten". From watching Tasha run into parked cars to Christal saying so many things wrong on the radio... all in the same day! Of course I can't leave out the one where my cousin Anthony is warning another canoe to watch out for the bridge ahead and then.....boing!!!!... he runs into the bridge...Its just those moments where you had to have been there. I've had many memorable events also... NYLF/TECH in Silicon Valley CA. '04, all Track seasons, Christals Pimpmobile, 9th Grade Art with Tracey, RENT!, Joke of The Day Scandal!. My friends: Joe Previtera, Christal, Tasha, Tracey, Nicole, Curtis, Rob, Steven(Road Trip to Florida!..lol), Judy, Amanda P., Jackie, Erica W., Diane, Chad, Kunaal, Erica Petersen!...missed not having you as my art teacher for my senior year! (Road Trip to Saughterties!...lol). Hopefully I'll have a successful career in graphic design at RIT...im mikeROD...for WTBQ The Teen Show ... See you next Time!...oh by the way I hope you enjoy the yearbook because It took me FOREVVERR!!! to finish it!... Ooo yeah... Hi Mom and Dad!

It's over already. That's crazy. So many great times with everyone at the old school and at the Academy too. Made so many friends I know I'll never forget and all the great times we've had from the band trips to lunch time prison-ball and how we always either got hurt or the ball taken away. Spanish was always fun especially when certain people, (me) confuse words and then get laughed at by the rest of the class. Who could ever forget playing dradel to Michael Jackson or people who dress as thugs for Halloween. Can't say our class always had it easy but one way or another we all managed to get through and overcome the obstacles that presented themselves to our class in particular. I am grateful to have shared all of these experiences with my friends and the class of 2005. Thanks to my family as well for everything you guys have done. I will miss you all. Peace out.

Pepe,

You had all the right answers, always did the right thing, but I think you are a closet protester! A little advise: next time tell the joke in Spanish!

- Sra. Mig

Pedro/Rugrat,

Too bad you were too old for Dora la Exploradora. Doesn't matter, papas fritas don't need to say anything but "catsup!" Voted best legs for a Senior Servant by the underclassmen.

- Sra. Mig

Kayla,

You are the "disco" queen, fifties girl! Keep that determination!

- Sra. Mig

Melissa,

Buena suerte para el ano que viene! Do you want to do the Regents Speaking Task again?

- Sra. Mig

Rodrigo,

I am going to will all your Spanish techno projects to the next teacher. I am sure you will own a Fortune 500 company!

- Sra. Mig

Ashley,

I am sure you are going to publish the Memoirs of Espanol III for us. You are the spirit of the squad and the class! You are a superative superlative!

- Sra. Mig

Tasha,
Que puedo decirte? Yo se que nunca vas a perder tu voz! Good thing you did track so that you could run from activity to activity. Un beso para tu sobrino! Te echare de menos!
- Con amor, Sra. Mig

Espanol III:
Four things I know:
1- You have more excuses than vocabulary.
2- You know how to cook.
3- When the chips are down, you got through.
4- We all wanted Tom out of the room !
Buena Suerte!

"WHERE HAS THE TIME GONE?", I SAID TO THE CLOCK KEEPER. IN A PUZZLED WAY, HE SMILED AND NOTED- "IT COMES AND GOES EVERY SINGLE DAY".

BUT MY LITTLE BOY IS ALL GROWN UP, AND IT IS SAFE TO SAY, I NEVER THOUGHT THAT TIME COULD PASS IN SUCH A HURRIED WAY.

I CAN ONLY HOPE THE FUTURE DAYS ARE AS FULL AND RICH AS THE PAST,
FOR MEMORIES OF THE TIMES GONE BY ARE THE ONLY THINGS THAT LAST.

YOU ARE OUR TREASURED SON, AND A BIG BROTHER TOO,
WE ARE PROUD OF YOU, AND WISH YOU LUCK IN EVERYTHING YOU DO.

AND NOW IT IS TIME TO LET YOU GO, ON YOUR MERRY WAY,
BUT LET US PAUSE TO LET YOU KNOW, WE LOVE YOU EVERYDAY.

WE LOVE YOU RYAN,
MOM, DAD, ASHLYN, SHAWN, AND SNICKER

DANNY

May the good lord be with you
Down every road you roam
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud
Dignified and true
And do unto others
As you'd have done to you
Be courageous and brave

May good fortune be with you
May you guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven
With a prince or vagabond

And when you finally fly away
We'll be hoping that we served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell

But whatever road you choose
We're right behind you, win or lose

Dan.... It has been a joy and an exciting adventure watching you grow into a fine young man. Thanks for all the "Travel Games" and road trips. You are a great brother and a son that is loved unconditionally.

Go Dan!!!!!!!

Brianne

A younger sister is someone to use as a guinea-pig in trying your crazy ideas and experimental go-carts.

Someone to send on messages to Mom.

But someone who needs you - who comes to you with bumped heads, grazed knees, tales of persecution.

Someone who trusts you to defend her.

Someone who thinks you know the answers to almost everything.

"A sister is a gift to the heart, a friend to the spirit, a golden thread to the meaning of life."

"Thanks to birth order, I have something she'll never have ...
A powerhouse to be inspired by."

Thank you for everything! I couldn't have done it without you!
I'm going to miss you!

Love Always,
Ciara

Congratulations Brianne!

Your attention so acute
Your energy absolute
Your wit is without measure
Your smile a true treasure

When you witness beauty
Your soul fulfills its duty
It makes your feelings show
Reflects your inner glow

As you put the brush to canvas
Every color of your being, nothing less
Than all the sunrises and flowers
The root of your true powers

As you continue on
Your path to each new dawn
Each step a fiery dance
With which you will enhance

...the moment, the hour, the day
...the space, the town, the world

It's all waiting for you
As with everything you do
Will bring everything you deserve and desire

And you have grown,
I've watched you spread your wings,
You are like a beautiful butterfly,
Ready to embark on a journey all your own.

Be proud of who you are(As I am of you),
And of all that you have accomplished.

MICHAEL

It was April 20th in 1987, when we received this gift from heaven.

We needed a name that started with an M,
so we looked through the baby books again and again.

All names starting with M seem so odd,
until we read the name Michael means "of the gods".

So we called him Michael cause it sounded cool,
then it turned to Micky when he started school.

A few years later it's back to Michael again,
but since computers took over
Mikerod began.

Now it's off to college and adult life begins,
but who knows what he'll call himself when he comes home
again.

Mikerod is very special to our family,
so go out and be the best you can be.

Always be the leader of the crowd,
but what ever you do you know
we'll be proud.

It's hard to believe from that gift from heaven, grew up to be Mikerod7.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Mylene, Michelle, Martina and Mickey

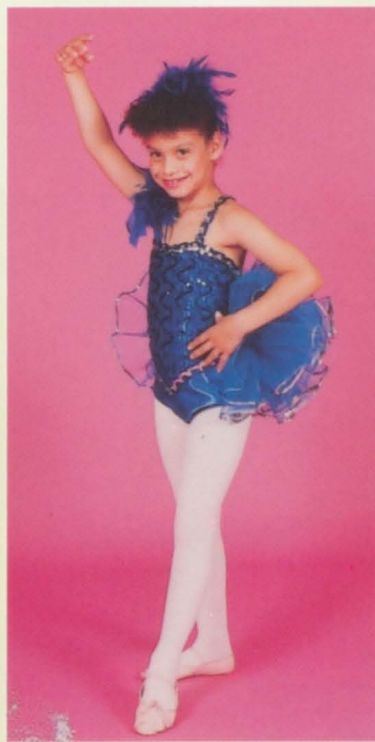

Heaven sent Angel

Mr. Delgado, your baby is in fetal distress. Since you ate you will have to sign a waiver for an emergency c-section. Without it the baby will die, with it she has a 50/50 chance of survival on a ventilator. We cannot go in without it. We have a neonatologist ready to go... Drama, drama, drama. This is how you came into this world and you have been kicking a_ _ ever since. You are absolutely my angel from heaven. You are strong, smart, beautiful, and can overcome any obstacle. The drama part simply comes with the territory of being a girl :) , sorry. I am extremely proud of the wonderful, caring, loving, intelligent young lady that you have grown into. There is nothing that you cannot achieve in this world. Oh, by the way, when you make it big on Broadway don't forget mama. Looking forward to the next chapter in your life. College? Europe? Life...

Love you forever,

ALLMAN BROS. ~ SWEET MELISSA

Dear Miss,

From the day you were born, you have been a shining light in my life. Watching you grow to the wonderful young lady you are has been a pleasure. There have been so many proud moments, from your awards in grammar school, your kicking the ball out of the catcher's glove in the all star game(my favorite), making the National Honors Society, to your going off to college. You are the best. Stay the way you are. You are my best friend.

I'll love you always,

Robin

Robin,

It is so hard for us to believe that it is time for you to be graduating high school. The years have gone so very quickly. You have turned into an incredible young woman. You are smart, witty, talented, and oh so beautiful. We are so proud of the person you have grown up to be. We look back with fondness on the journey that has gotten us to today. We remember your first steps, your first dance class, recital after recital and the many dance competitions over the years. It was a lot of hard work but it was a wonderful learning experience. You learned hard work and dedication to something you love gives you rewards that others can only imagine. You have made many friends along the way who have had a big impact on the person you are today. Some are still with you and others have gone on their way, but each has left their mark on your life. Be thankful for what each has brought you.

Congratulations on your graduation. We are very proud of you and love you more than these simple words can express. You are a true blessing!

Nicole Scrobe

On September 5, 1987 God blessed us with the 1st of our five precious daughters. "Paliane Nikole" our little Hawaiian. From that day on our lives would change forever. We never could have imagined how much joy and happiness one little person could bring to everyone.

You gave life a whole new meaning. We not only watched you grow, we grew with you.

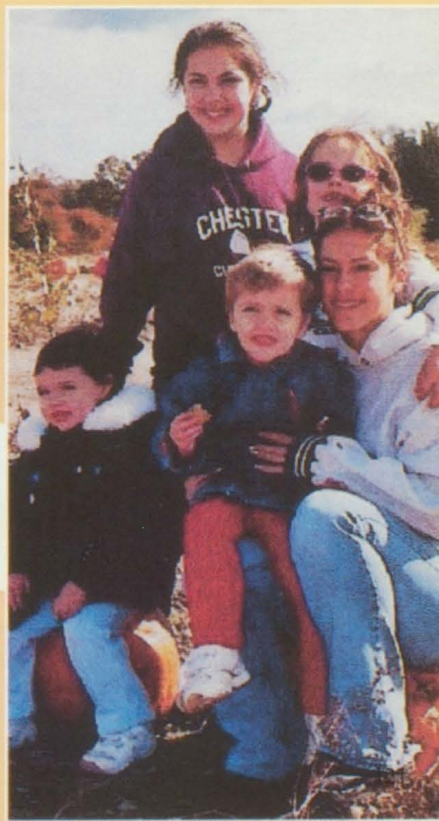

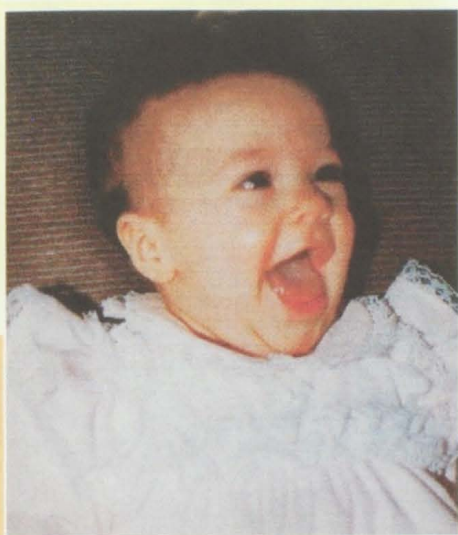

We watched as our little curly haired, domineering, curious, animal loving tomboy blossomed into a caring, righteous, intelligent young lady. Brianne it hasn't been easy being the firstborn but your sisters all look up to you for your guidance and knowledge.

We couldn't be any prouder how you always stand up for your beliefs and are true to your convictions. Sometimes that's a very lonely road but you've taken it with your head held high. You've shown us how rewarding your determination and hard work can be on and off the soccer field.

Remember that no matter what road you chase in life we are always here for you. Now the adventure begins. Whatever challenges face you, meet them head on. We have always told you, if you know you have tried your best then that is all anyone can ask. This truly is first day of the rest of your life. We know you think of Chester as your home, but remember there is a wondrous world waiting for you to explore.

All our love always,

Mom, Dad, Ciara, Emily, Christianna, & Victoria

Danielle

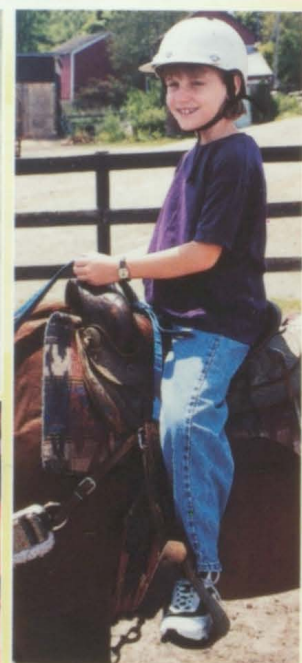

Life has not been easy for you since the day that you were born, but yet you persevered. I've watched with pride as you faced each challenge that came your way. You've never let anything hold you back.

It has been a pleasure watching you grow. Your creativity and artistic abilities amaze me. On the field you are a real team player. I watched with pride and joy as you gave it your all. I'm so glad that I was able to be there when you learned how to swim, or do gymnastics or ride a horse like a pro. I will always cherish the memories that we have had together.

So now it is time for my last little chick to fly the nest. Now is the time for you to embark on a new adventure. Follow your dreams wherever they may take you, and know that I will always be there for you.

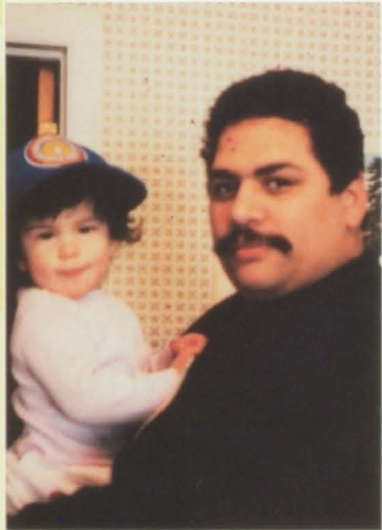

Congratulations baby and Good Luck

We love you,
Mom, Den, Nikki, & Marianne

Kayla,

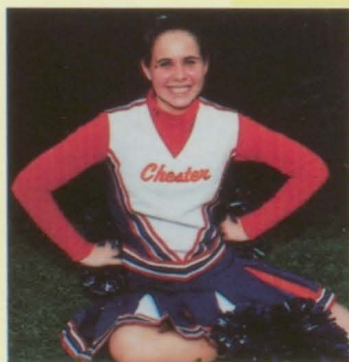

When did it happen? When did you go from being this precious little girl, into becoming this beautiful young woman? It was as though we blinked, and it happened instantly. You have had so many obstacles to overcome, from your birth, till the present time. Conquering each one with such drive, never giving up even through tears of pain.

We are so proud of you for everything you have accomplished; you have worked so hard for it all. We are so proud of you for who you have grown into, a very strong, very determined, beautiful young woman. Your convictions and passions will in a profound way touch so many lives. We know this because you have touched ours in ways no words can describe.

Your great sense of humor and wild personality are the things we look forward to each day. You are truly unique. You have always risen to any and all challenges that cross your path. It is because of all of these wonderful traits that no matter what choices you make throughout your life, you will succeed. You have a very kind heart, remember to always follow it. Our minds are like photo albums, and memories are the photos. Take a lot of pictures throughout your life.

We are so very proud of you.

He was cultured and cosmopolitan, yet he loved nature and the outdoors, too. He was dignified, yet loved to wear those crazy, colorful bow ties and had a wild sense of humor.
